DESCRIPTION

Mondrian House is the latest work of architect, creative genius, Manuel Guerrero. This newly constructed and absolutely stunning home is just steps to the ocean and includes access to a private beach. This very elegant home features abundant natural light, walls of glass and generously proportioned terraces, decks and patios, all designed to bring the ocean and outdoors inside. A true modern California beach house, the design is simple, yet sophisticated for a completely timeless look. While is very luxurious, it has all the right rooms needed for everyday living. A few of the highlights include the generously sized chef's kitchen with Thermador appliances, an open concept design, radiant heat, separate family room, office alcove, amply sized butler's pantry, pre-wiring for audio/visual networking and a private ocean view master retreat. Situated in the award winning Carmel School District and a short drive to the shops of Carmel.
